

Activity Information Voices in Pictures

Name of Activity	Expressions on faces
Language(s)	All
Suggested Level	From A1
Suggested Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Enlarge and improve vocabulary related to the expressions on faces and to feelings - Stimulate communication - Improve observation skills and concentration - Improve writing skills - Experience collaborative learning - Increase self-confidence
Procedure	Activity 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Learners look at the pictures. § In pair they are asked to find adjectives fitting to each single drawing. § Then to write them on a board where the single drawings have been previously pinned. Activity 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Learners compare the adjectives they have found with the adjectives listed as sample for the solution. § They discuss their interpretation of the expressions. § They add unknown adjectives to their own list. Activity 3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Learners are asked to divide the feelings/expressions of faces in two categories (positive and negative). Sometimes feelings can be both. § They compare their results in group of 4 or 6 and discuss them. Activity 4 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Learners are asked to choose three drawings and report about the day of a person who experienced these feelings during that day. That could be a homework which can be presented at the beginning of the next lesson.
Other Comments	To find more pictures please go to the project website of “Voices in Pictures”: www.voicesinpictures.eu

Expressions on faces:

1. In pair find adjectives which fit to the expressions on the each drawing of faces below

On a board write the adjectives you have found next to each drawing.

Example:

- funny, happy, cheerful, ...

2. Please compare your adjectives with the ones in the list below? Did you find other adjectives?

German	English
schelmisch	tricksy
überrascht	surprised/ astonished
verärgert/ärgerlich	angry/annoyed
skeptisch	sceptical
kumpelhaft	pally
zufrieden	content/satisfied
interessiert/ erwartungsvoll	interested/ eager/hopeful neutral/unbeteiligt	neutral/ unconcerned
gelangweilt	bored
fragend	interrogative/ wondering

German	English
fröhlich/gut gelaunt	cheerful / good- humored
sauer/ schimpfend /meckernd	cross/ invective/ bitching erschrocken/ängstlich	scared/ anxious unzufrieden/ misstrauisch	dissatisfied/wary gleichgültig	unconcerned/ indifferent
müde/ uninteressiert	tired / uninterested
selbst zufrieden	complacent
enttäuscht	disappointed
wütend	furious/ angry
traurig/weinerlich	sad/ whiny

Add unknown adjectives to your own list.

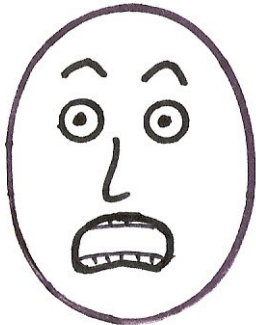

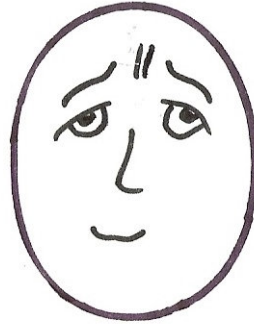

3. Divide the feelings/expressions of faces in two categories (in pair)

Positive feelings

Negative feelings

4. Choose three drawings and report about the day of a person who experienced these feelings during that day.

Example:

John got up good-humored early in the morning. He was enjoying life! During the day he attended a workshop which was not very interesting and which he followed unconcerned. On his way home he nearly had a serious car crash so that he was terribly scared. He was glad to have escaped and went home.