Name of Activity	Non-verbal chain
Language(s)	All
Suggested Level	From A1
Suggested Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Creativity awakening; - Non-verbal communication developer; - Integrating exercise.
Procedure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Five people are chosen to leave the room. The group decides on a mime sequence to do, for example making a pizza or changing a baby's nappy. - The student no 1 is called in and told what to do. - The 2nd student is then called in and watches while the first student mimes making a pizza. - The third student is then called in and repeats what he sees the 2nd does. - The rest continues. - Last person mimes to the audience. The usual result is that the mime changes with each repetition so that she/he is doing something entirely different. Ask each person what she/he thought they were doing.
